DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

1. Claim 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. In this case, support for the limitation that the plurality of programs comprising separate and independent information signals not derived from a common signal source (in independent claims 1 and 10) was not found in the specification.

Response to Amendment

2. The reply filed on 5/26/04 was applied to the following effect: The 112 second paragraph rejections to claims 4 and 13 are withdrawn as being satisfied.

Response to Arguments

3. The arguments given on page 6 and 7 regarding the §112 first paragraph rejection are purely speculative and not clearly supported by the specification. Figure 1 shows separate audio input signals, but there is no clear indication in the specification that these signals are independent and not derived from a common signal source. The example of multiple program transmission applications such as multiple program DAB is given with further examples such as satellite DAB and Internet DAB, but would not signals originating from such applications be considered to originate for a common signal source (a satellite or an Internet source). Thus the 112 first paragraph rejection is maintained.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
